Synopsis

Stories from the National Public Radio archives honor America's national pastime. Stories so compelling you'll stay in your car to hear them throughâ "even if you're sitting in your own driveway. Peabody-winning Talk of the Nation host Neal Conan presents tales about the big leagues and the little, the fans in the stands, the players, the history, and the lore. Highlights include commentaries from some of the game's most recognized authorities, a look back at some of baseball's most important figures (Jackie Robinson, Joltin' Joe DiMaggio), and colorful segments about the game's unexpected delights, from the Hidden Ball Trick to the "All You Can Eat" option at Dodger Stadium.

Customer Reviews

The best of the "Driveway Moments" so far. Snappy and engaging and hilarious -- there's not a dull moment in this collection. I'll be buying this for all of my baseball fan friends.

I bought this for my Dad; and he loved it. The pieces cover a broad range of eras and topics about the Great Game. If you love baseball, you'll enjoy this CD.

If you love baseball, you'll appreciate this compilation of stories from NPR. I've listened to it more than a few times, too, since purchasing it and, when lending it out, have a tough time getting it back. Play ball!

Picked this up at a yard sale for $1 and have listened twice so far, in the car. Great highlights, good interviews, some music, poetry, analysis and lots of enthusiasm. You know these NPR folks love the game! Old Timey, new timey and just in between, this is worth repeated listens!

Really entertaining and produced in a first rate style. This makes a great gift to the baseball aficionado. NPR Funniest Driveway Moments: Radio Stories That Won't Let You Go

If you love both NPR and baseball, you'll love these stories! Lives up to the promise of "driveway moments" - stories that you just can't turn off!

We listened to these stories on a long road trip. Stories were so enjoyable, educational and some humorous. Would make a nice gift for a baseball fan.

Off-the-beaten-path baseball stories and anecdotes that I enjoyed listening to while driving. Some humor and some inspiration and some silliness.
