Tudor Punishments And Gruesome Executions...for Kids!

Synopsis

Read all about the gory and gruesome ways that the Tudors used to punish criminals in this fantastic book especially for kids aged between 7 and 11. The Tudors ruled England for over 100 years and during that time two of the most famous monarchs ever sat on the throne, Henry VIII and Elizabeth 1. The Tudors were a lot more brutal and harsh than we are today. So the punishments you will read about in this book are a lot worse than the punishments you would expect to see in England today. As well as the punishments there are some great stories about some of the most famous executions that happened during Tudor Times. Find out why there was a problem with Thomas Cromwell's execution, how Mary Queen of Scots wore a wig for hers and who was the old lady that ran around Tower Green, refusing to put her head on the block?

Customer Reviews

Interesting and historically accurate accounts of gruesome torture and execution in Tudor England. Will make a great stocking stuffer for the grandkids.
