Synopsis

DOWNLOAD FOR FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED Harper Donovan should be experiencing the greatest joy in her lifeâGott has finally answered her prayers and given her not one, but two healthy sons. However, soon after celebrating the birth of her twins, her husband contracts viral pneumonia and dies, leaving her alone to care for their dairy farm, home, and children. In addition to this pain, she also lives with constant pain from knowing that his death is her fault, due to the curse sheâs suffered from all her life. During one of her darkest nights, her first night alone with the babies and the farm, one of the children becomes ill and she must travel through a storm to find help. Like a ray of sunshine cutting through darkness, she meets Dr. Louis Parker, the handsome brother of one of her closest friends. The two discover an immediate bond, but Harper knows that she must push him away before her curse strikes him too. âAch, you are going to manage everything? How? Just like you managed to pop into this world, eating your own shveshtah? Or just like you managed in your marriage by pushing your mann to death? You, Harper Donovan, are a black sheep who takes bad luck where she goes.â Tears burned in Harperâs eyes at her maemmâs words. Why did they always manage to get to her? Why did they do this every single time? âThen maybe you shouldnât be anywhere near me, in case my bad luck eats you up as well, Maemm. Iâm sure you want to be among your other kinner with shining luck and bright wuhnt,â she couldnât keep herself from saying. Dr. Louis Parker is waiting for a letter that will change his life, approval to work on a project heâs trained for over the past few years. Until it arrives, he decides to go and make a long overdue visit to his sister in Lancaster, the small Amish community where he was raised. A suddenly sick baby gets his attention almost immediately, and he feels an instant bond with the baby and his twin. However, he also feels an intense attraction to their mother, a pretty widow with a constant dark cloud hanging over her head. When he learns that no other man has claimed her, he wants nothing more than to make her his own, to protect her little family from any harm. Soon the desired letter comes and he is presented with the opportunity of a lifetime, although it would mean giving up Harper and the babies heâs come to see as his own children. Will Harperâs curse keep her from finding true love with the handsome doctor? How will Louis decide whether to achieve his dreams or follow his heart?

Customer Reviews

I thought I read this but this author has used someone else title. I checked saarah sowell other books and I found that this is the third book she has written with exactly the same book titles as books by better known authors. There could be more but I stopped when I found 3. 1 or 2 could be a mistake but 3 or more probably not. This Leaves a bad taste in my mouth!

I have read many Amish books, but this one I disliked the most. It had too many Amish words that were not explained. It used Gott way too many times as taking God's name in vain as a slang word. The Lord Jesus Christ is my personal Saviour , my friend, . So be considerate how you talk about Him.

Harper, a young widow with twin boys, has just lost her husband to pneumonia. Vowing to honor her husband's memory, she doesn't recon upon Louis Parker stealing into her heart & the hearts of her kinder. Read of her redemption in the eyes of her community through this loving man.

WONDERFUL READING

Sowell is a great writer. I have enjoyed every book I read of hers. I especially enjoy the Amish books.
